COUNTLESS OPPORTUNITIES TO LEARN

Reaching Your 36 Learning Hour Target by September 30

Dear Learners,

With our fiscal year soon approaching, now is a good time to check your progress towards the 36 learning hours target. Whether you're just getting started, or you're putting the finishing touches on your goal, or you've extended your goals, there are plenty of opportunities to #learnandearn.

Here are a few options:

- ☒ Watching webinar and workshop recordings
- ☒ Completing online learning modules
- ☒ Reading industry articles, whitepapers, and technical resources
- ☒ Participating in knowledge-sharing sessions
- ☒ Shadowing a colleague or learning from a subject matter expert
- ☒ Mentoring or coaching a colleague
- ☒ Pursuing a certification or professional development course
- ☒ Attending live training sessions and webinars

DID YOU REACH YOUR LEARNING HOURS GOAL?

Check Your Progress

You can view your completed learning hours at any time through:

- Global Learning Portal: <https://learning.siemens.com/glp2/v/ui/> or
- My Learning World (MLW): <https://mylearningworld.siemens.com/>

MISSING LEARNING HOURS?

Managing Your Learning Hours

Keep up the great work! As fiscal year draws near, don't lose any of your learning credits. You've earned them.

1. Go to the Global Learning Portal 2.0 (GLP) and review your dashboard.
2. Click here for a quick overview of how to track your hours, action needed when you attend a training outside of Siemens, and the various training platforms.
3. Check your inbox for emails from My Community Learning and select "Yes, add this event to my learning record".
4. If you watch a recording of a previous training, you can manually add it to your GLP dashboard.

Did You Know? If you facilitate a training session, the time you spend researching, preparing materials, developing content can count toward your learning hours.
